STOCK MARKET DEPRESSED BY THE CROP OUTLOOK.

IN EVIDENCE.

The corn and cotton carriers enjoyed a firm undertone throughout. The firmness of the corn market was attributed to sympathy with the violent advance in wheat and reports current in the grain markets of danger to corn from frost were ignored. The coalers both of the hard and soft coal group made substantial gains. Pennsylvania Railroad traffic officials reported an extraordinary traffic in coal, especially in the movement of soft coal to the lakes. Pennsylvania liself was held back by sympathy with the early heaviness in steel, but Norfolk and Western got the full benefit of these reports.

The strength of Ontario and Western was a sustaining influence on the anthracite group. The buying of this stock was believed to be competitive as between the Voting Trust interests and the Stockholders Protective Association. The market showed no disturbance over the apparently acute orisis over the preservation of the mentrality of China, and the issue of a Russian loan and reported efforts to float a Japanese loan were of no effect in the money market. The sailing of another cargo of $1.750.000 of gold for San Francisco from Australia was sufficient assurance against any present disturbances of our money market by foreign influences. The stock market closed fairly steady and with the recovered level of prices pretty well maintained.

Bonds were heavy. Total sales, par value, £,510.000 United States 2s advanced $\frac{1}{2}$, and the old 4s declined $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent on call.

NATIVE CATTLE-Beef Steets-Fresh native treedist combined with a liberal number of holicovers from Tuesday, made rather a good supply for the day, and as it was on top of a liberal run, the market was slow and duli throughout and generally on a very unearistately bards. Practically two-thirds of the offerings were beef siers, mestly medium and prefix good grades. Good to choice kinds were scarce and for them some inquiry prevailed, with several leads selfing at full steady prices. Medium feshed steers and unity fat grades were not taken readily, and wit/ some uneveniness was manticated, the general market inclined to a like hower basis.

ALL YEAR'S RECORDS. SUMMARY OF ST. LOUIS MARKETS

Bullish speculation run wild carried wheat values upward in yesterday's market. All price records for the crop were broken, and, though the market declined in the lest hour, there seemed to be a great amount of reserve strength. Heavy receipts here and at other primary points and prospects of a number crop in India were bear-ish indications which had no effect in checking the advance. The action of foreign markets was one of the most potent builtsh factors. Big gains were recorded in all European markets. European markets: Paris showed unusual excitement. This was taken as evidence that the continued efferts of domestic operators on the long side were beginning to show results abroad, and the buying of foreign operators would be added to that of outsiders in this country as a lever to force prices upward. Widely circulated predictions of professionals that higher levels would be reached also had an important bearing on the result of the day's trading. While the market was almost purely manifestive leading to the result of the day's trading. manipulative, legitimate conditions afforded some basis for the advance. Very lew temperatures in the Northwest justified fear of frost in the spring belt, and scattered damage reports from the West and Southwest strengthened the hands of the bulls. Corn was strong, though dull. The advance in future prices was mainly through empathy with wheat. Receipts were larger and weather conditions were generally Sept, wheat opened to up and closed &c up.
